Re: Documents for recording

Dear Ms. Lee:

Attached hereto please find five (5) letters which serve as transmittal letters of those documents forwarded to you under cover letter dated October 18, 1985.

I believe that you will find that even though that some of the Bills of Sale cover the same cars they do so at different times, therefore, the cumulative effect of all the Bills of Sale is to trace, to a limited extent, the chain of title to each railcar. For example the Bills of Sale covering GLNX3561 reflect that on May 1, 1985 T. F. Glass, Jr. sold the car to Houston J-M Corporation and on May 3, 1985, Houston J-M Corporation sold the car to Bob E. Atnip.

Please note that the references in each of the attached letter to a check for filing expenses ($30.00, $40.00, $60.00, $10.00 and $40.00) respectively, are covered by the $180.00 check previously tendered to you.

If after reviewing the enclosed transmittal letters, you have any questions, please do not hesitate to call. I am certainly appreciative of your attention to this matter.

Yours very truly,

Michael E. Keller
